Approve Bills Mayor Jonne Slemons called for a motion to approve or amend the bills.

Alderman Lance Johns asked about the reimbursement to Spurling

Construction.

Administrator Jake Taylor replied that Spurling Construction had purchased the building permit for the construction site for new Electric and Gas building and the City had already issued the building permit.

Alderman Charles Crabtree asked about the pool slide. Kenny Robertson,

Electric Superintendent, replied that the slide had a crack in it and contractor had to come and replace it.

Motion made by Alderman Randy Brejnik to approve the bills and seconded by Alderman Charles Crabtree.

Public Input

Mayor Jonne Slemons asked if there was any Public Input.

Teresa Irwin told Council that she has lived at her location for 8 years and the last two rains her basement has been flooded. Teresa believes it is because of the tube that was installed on 14th Street was smaller than the original ones and the debris in Buck's Branch.

Mayor Jonne Slemons said that the Street Department tried to contact the owner to request permission to get on property and couldn't get a hold of anyone. They removed some trees and other debris out of Buck's Branch.

Alderman Randy Mann response was that they could keep the creek cleaned out for better water flow.

Marvin Casady remarked that the mud in the Park was a disaster after the last two storms. Marvin Casady said that the 2 five foot tubes that are planning on being installed at 28th Street is not sufficient for the water that comes down the creek.

Mayor Jonne Slemons said that keeping the creek cleaned will help and the City needs to look at the solution in another budget.

Administrator & Department Reports

Administrator Jacob Taylor told Council that Miriam Cemetery would like assistance in removing the telephone poles in the Cemetery. The last storm one of the poles broke and the lights haven't been used for several years. The Council discussed the issue and agreed to remove the poles for Miriam Cemetery.

Fireworks

Administrator Jacob Taylor asked the Council if they would consider extending the days for shooting fireworks until Sunday, July 7, 2019. The bull riding event at the fairgrounds is scheduled on Saturday, July 6 and the plan is to shoot the fireworks off after the bull riding event.

Motion made by Alderman Randy Brejnik to extend shooting fireworks until July 7, 2019 and seconded by Alderman Charles Crabtree.
